

Another Brand-New Day

Words & Music: Inga Rumpf

It's all said and done
Tomorrow will come
Another day

Laughter and tears
Hope and fear
Will write another tale

We did our best
Now let's take a rest
And have our dreams tonight

Yeah, I believe
That we'll receive
The call if we're doing wrong or right

So it's all said and done
Tomorrow will come
Another brand-new day

Now listen around
You'll hear the sound
Of a lullaby

Colours of day
Are fading away
Right into the night

So turn out the light
Let's make it all right
And let the world become new

A girl forgets
But a woman regrets
All the things she should'nt do

So it's all said and done
Tomorrow will come
Another brand-new day
