

The Man

Words & Music: Adrian Askew/Schott

Publisher: Breeze Music

It's the man that tells you what to do
He tells you what's right and wrong
It's the man that blows your mind
You've got to sing his sweet love song

You've got trapped in his stinking web
But there are better things in life instead
It's going on, keeps going on
You've let yourself down again
And now there ain't no happy ending
What's going on, what's going on

You were too young to know
What you were doing, what you could do
Then the man came along, and you thought you could catch him
But he caught you

You gave your life up much too fast
'Cause what you did, you did to last
It's going on, keeps going on
The time is right, but the place is wrong
You're tied to what you've said and done
It's going on, keeps going on

It's the man in your life
You've gotta do what he tells you
Well, it's the man in your life
You've gotta see it, you've gotta see it through
